

Different Scenarios of the Rules, Protocol and Procedures of the gym for Role Playing

Students will be grouped with 3-4 students to act out different scenario to demonstrate their knowledge of the rules, protocols, and procedures of the gym.

Your group just won an activity! Everyone in your group is very excited, one person starts yelling out to the other team..."We won, we won!" Help out your friend and show good sportsmanship to others in your class.

Your group is on their way down to P.E. when two people remembered they forgot their sneakers. Help out your friends to find some sneakers, one-person finds a pair to wear and the other can't find a pair.

Your group is working hard at their skills. Demonstrate what you should do when the music goes off and on. One person is the teacher and one student is not following the directions. Help them out.

The teacher just told everyone to quickly make a group and sit down quietly. First groups of 2, then 3, then 4. One person does not want to be partners with a certain person help out the situation.

There is a problem! Everyone but one 1 person keeps arguing over the equipment. Some people in the group find great ways to solve the problem, others need to seek additional help. Where should they go?

Teacher will grade students from a 3 level rubric.

Scoring Guide

Level 3: Your group understands & knows the rules!

Level 2: Your group is starting to understand & know the rules!

Level 1: Your group does not understand or know the rules!